Civil Rights Movement

Name: ___________________________

3-5 Reading Guide

Date: __________________________

Date Due:

My thinking about the Civil Rights Movement before reading:

Books Read:

Picture Books:

1. ____________________________________________________________

2. ____________________________________________________________

3. ____________________________________________________________

4. ____________________________________________________________
Fiction and Nonfiction Texts:

1. _______________________________________________________________________

2. _______________________________________________________________________

3. _______________________________________________________________________

Required Notebook work includes:

- Post-it notes while reading. These should be added to notebook on page(s) labeled with book title, author as well as beginning date and completion date.
- Entries about thinking/questions/new learning (K-W-L chart should be included in notebook. Use extra notebook pages as needed.)
- Discussion thoughts, questions and outcomes.

My thinking about the Civil Rights Movement after reading.